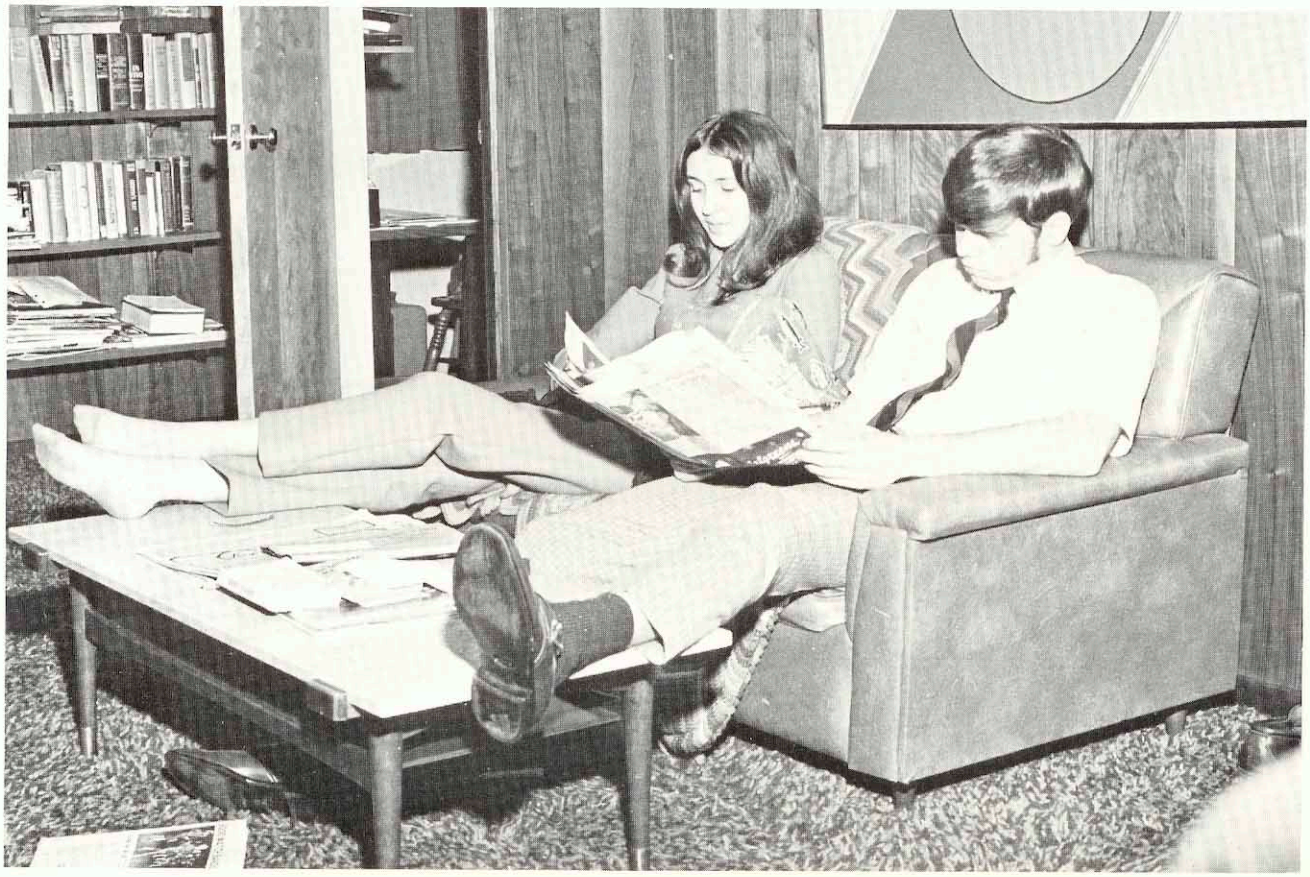
FEATURES

Who's Who

The following seniors were elected by their classmates because of their outstanding characteristics and personalities. We now present Riverside's Who's Who for the school year of 1970-71.

MOST CO-OPERATIVE: Brenda Hill and Hank Thomas are considered most co-operative, but doing what? COOKING??

LAZIEST: It seems to be that Belinda Webster and Jeff Milan seem to be living a life of "RILEY".



MOST COURTEOUS—"Please be seated, my dear," says Jimmy Robertson to Shirley Mays.

MOST DEPENDABLE—We can always depend on Betty Wilson to keep boys like David Weatherford out of the "JOHN"!!

Sherry Baker and Gary McClain are our favorite CLASS CLOWNS. Sherry sat up and Gary fell down. "Baw, baw, baw!!" says who?

BEST ALL AROUND—You can always find Jimmy Robertson and Susan Shell trying to find out if the world is still round.

MR. & MISS SCHOOL SPIRIT—"How 'bout a swig?" replies high-spirited Kay Vise and Johnny Maxwell.

FRIENDLIEST—"Just one more chance!" begs Gary McClain to his adorable Susan Shell.

MOST TALENTED–Rugena Tolley and David Weatherford are heard singing their favorite song, "Sweet Thang".

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED–"Cram that loot in!" seems to be the order that Bill Fisher received from Mike Hayes and Elaine Keeton, alias Bonnie and Clyde.

BEST LOOKING–Handsome Johnny Maxwell escorts the lovely lady, Lana Maness.

FLIRTIEST—Tim Baker and Shirley Mays are taking time out from their flirty gestures.

MOST ATHLETIC—Lana Maness and Steve Boggan think that trophies are their games.

SENSIBLE SOPHOMORES–Brenda Myracle and Randy Hardin are silently bringing their mysterious senses together.

JABBERING JUNIORS–Lila Rushing and Johnny Adams are caught for the MILLIONTH time "Jacking their Jaws."

SUPERIOR SENIORS–"Bow down to us" seems to be the words of Sara Emmons and Mike McBride.

Football Homecoming Royalty

Miss Beth Crawley, a Senior at Riverside, was elected Homecoming Queen for 1970-1971 by the members of the Panther football team. "We Congratulate You, Beth."

Freshman Maid: Diane Primm, Junior Maid: Teresa McClure, Queen: Beth Crawley, Senior Maid: Lana Maness, Sophomore Maid: Susan Dickerson.

Ricky Goff heads for "Day Light."

Steve Marshbanks and teammates pick up yardage during the homecoming game.

The Class of '71 will long remember their most wonderful and tremendous bon-fire of traditional celebration.

"Gone but not Forgotten" are the memories of the Senior girls as they traditionally bury their wishful pennies.

The Riverside Panthers made history this year by participating and by winning the Crocket Bowl. We would like to thank them for giving Riverside this honor and would like to congratulate them.
